EDGIC Artist: Luis Liberato

Form and eloquence greet your senses as you absorb the intricate play of colors EDGIC Artist Luis Liberato sets before you as you partake of his wealth of personal experience in a unique and eclectic way.

Luis Liberato has been dedicated exclusively to painting since 2010 and his art is based on contemporary reflections moving from reference to reference of nature through the natural world.

Artist Luis Liberato art stems from a myriad of cultural references culminating in Portugal where colorful influences flavor his approach to whatever he chooses to reference in his own inimitable way.

Transferring the nature of what is seen he cuts through the veils and brings forth the spirit of his contemplations.

The art world has honored this great artist with many awards, yet Luis Liberato values stepping beyond the form of what has been created and forges ahead in trialling new ways of interpreting the very nature of things.

If you are an Art Collector or Art Lover, Luis Liberato invites you into his world to participate in the joy of uninhibited play with your senses to liven your view of the world.
